Synopsis

An operatic version of the story of The Three Little Pigs based on scenes from operas by W. A. Mozart.

While brother pigs Don Giovanni and Cherubino set off to make homes of sticks and straw, their sister, Despina, goes to the library to read up on "huff-proof, puff-proof" home construction. After Wolfgang Bigbad blows down the boys' flimsy homes, they run to their sister's sturdy new brick house quite ready to admit that going to the library and reading books is a pretty smart thing to do after all.

What to Expect

- We will be performing a 40 minute opera sung in English for your school's K- 5th grade students.
- An entertaining plot and the show is an excellent introduction to opera.
- Our show requires attentive silence from the audience but it is also interactive.
- We will be singing with a pianist, not an orchestra.
- You and your students will be invited to ask questions at the end of the performance.
- Once you book a performance, Classroom materials will be sent directly to you at the school.

Dates are on a first-come, first-served basis and must be scheduled at least 2 weeks prior to the performance.

Performances may occur between 9:00 AM and 11:00 a.m

Only 30 performances will be available during the 2010-2011 School Year.
